LUMBERMEN MET AT GRAYLING

INSPIRING TALKS BY ABLE SPEAKERS

Members of the Retail Lumber Dealers Association No. 5 held a meeting here Tuesday evening. The association represents the dealers of the following counties: Crawford, Clare, Gladwin, Isosco, Missaukee, Ogemaw, Osceola and Roscommon. T. P. Peterson of Grayling is the president and Claude A. LaRocque of Roscommon is secretary and treasurer.

The meeting began with a banquet at the Music Box at Lake Margrethe. There were 22 to sit down to the tables where they were served with a real Danish dinner. Everyone was delighted with the dinner and many of the guests that it was wonderful. Talks were given at the banquet room by Mr. E. A. Wade of Seattle and our own T. W. Hanson, Mr. Wade and his wife were here to exhibit to the people their Hollow Log house which is built from one solid trunk of a western Douglas fir tree. It is 16 feet long and nine feet in circumference and has housed Mr. and Mrs. Wade on their itinerary about the states most of which they have covered. In all they have travelled about 20,000 miles. The log house is a very unique exhibit and attracted a lot of attention while in Grayling Tuesday. 836 people visited the exhibit.

After the banquet the crowd adjourned to the Board of Trade club rooms where a number of addresses were made. Mr. R. T. Titus, field representative of the West Coast Lumbermen's association gave a talk about the quantity of lumber left in the U. S. and told of some of the many uses of the various kinds. Mr. Roy B. Walborn of Lansing, showed a number of motion picture reels and gave a talk on the saw mill and timber operations of the Long Bell Lumber Co. This was especially interesting to the lumbermen and their guests. Mr. Walborn is secretary of the Michigan Retail Lumber Dealers association. Others on the program giving talks were Mr. McLees, field representative of the Ohio Retail Lumber Dealers association, and Mr. Barney, field representative of the Michigan Retail Lumber Dealers association. During the afternoon the visitors visited the Hartwick Memorial Pines park where motion pictures were taken showing some of the immense white pine trees, beginning from the butt and extending to the top. The height was so great that it seemed that the camera would never stop clicking. The Fish Hatchery and Hanson State Military reservation also were interesting attractions for the distinguished visitors.

GRANGE PICNIC AUG. 24

Crawford County Grange will hold their regular picnic Saturday Aug. 24 at the Hugo Schreiber Sr., farm. There will be upwards of 10,000 people. Everybody is invited to come and have a good time. Bring a well from out of town. Reports from the picnic basket for the picnic dinner, north especially indicate that some supper will be served also. Plates, cups and coffee will be furnished, almost completely and come down in there will be sports and games in a body to attend the carnival. Many of the afternoon and dancing at night. Towns are showing a great deal of Johnson's will furnish the music. Everybody welcome.

BAY CITY READY FOR GALA TIME

Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week will see the presentation of the gigantic first annual Eastern Michigan Water Carnival at Bay City. After months of preparation the stage is set and all is in preparation for the event.

Bay City is taking on the aspect of a gala mardi gras occasion. Flags and bunting are decorating the streets, and here and there workmen are busily preparing the scene for some phase or other of the carnival. Interest in the queen contest which will be one of the highlights of the program is high. Grayling has as its representative Miss Ellen Gothro, and she will compete against 28 other beauties of the eastern half of the state for the honor of being named Miss Eastern Michigan. With the title goes a great number of prizes and honorary awards, as well as the most important one of all—a trip to the national beauty contest at Baltimore to compete for the title of Miss America. Contests have been completed at every town which is backing the carnival, and interest is uniformly high in all of these communities. From Alpena south to Flint.

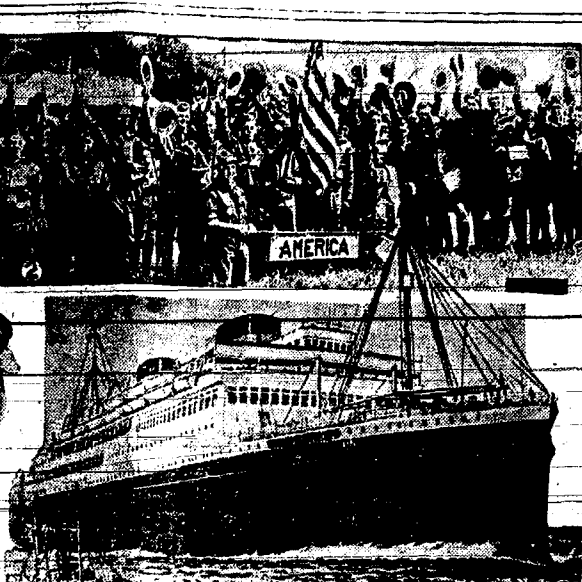

The girls who will represent their respective cities have been announced as follows, with the exceptions of Grayling, Saginaw and Flint, which have not yet made their announcements. Bay City, Margaret Whitford; Pinconning, Victoria Filipeck; Roscommon, Cecilia Henry; Rose City, Helen Brown; Unionville, Mamie Honeywell; Piquette, Ida Bolger; Bayport, Genevieve Dwyer; Schwanau, Dorothy Slagwart; Cass City, Mabel Crandall; Caro, Anna Snyder; Bad Axe, Irene Markle; Beaverton, Loraine Budge; Gladwin, Evelyn Pommery; Coleman, Flora McLean; Standish, Kathleen Frost; West Branch, Marjorie Kay; Mio, Katherine Anderson; Grayling, Ellen Gothro; Alpena, Helen Kwiatkowski; Tawas City, Alta Les-Clare; East Tawas, Beatrice Klump; Clare, Helen Raymond; Prescott, Janice Eymers; Midland, Ruth Carey; National City, Madeline Fortune; Whittemore, Adelaide St. James.

As a beautiful spectacle the parade is expected, will provide the most along this line. There will be about a hundred cars in the street procession and as many boats in the water parade, it is figured. One thing very pleasing to the committee is the way other cities have responded with floats for the procession, which starts Thursday afternoon at 1:30. All the decorations on the cars and boats are being carried out in an attempt to exemplify the spirit of things aquatic which is intended to typify the key-note of the entire carnival; and with the great number and variety of the floats provided, it is certain that they will be at least unusual and gratifying to the eye.

Bay City is expecting the largest influx of visitors which the town has ever seen. Given good weather, it seems certain to those in charge that there will be upwards of 10,000 people. Everybody is invited to come and have a good time. Bring a well from out of town. Reports from the picnic basket for the picnic dinner, north especially indicate that some supper will be served also. Plates, cups and coffee will be furnished, almost completely and come down in there will be sports and games in a body to attend the carnival. Many of the afternoon and dancing at night. Towns are showing a great deal of Johnson's will furnish the music. Everybody welcome.

ELLEN GOTHRO IS 'MISS GRAYLING'

Miss Ellen Gothro was the recipient of the greatest number of votes in the "Miss Grayling" contest, having 528 and her nearest rival, Miss Viola Kennedy having 495 and so was the lucky girl chosen to represent us at the Eastern Michigan Water Carnival held at Bay City Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The schedule asks that Miss Gothro arrive in Bay City with her chapter on Wednesday. Reservation will be made for her at the Wendland Hotel and while she is there, flowers will be furnished her by the various floatists of Bay City. Wednesday night she is the guest of the Regent Theatre where she is presented to the audience from the stage. H. G. Wendland and Co. announce that all out-of-town guests as well as the 10 Bay City girls who compete in the final judging contest, will be housed in the Wendland Hotel. The Regent Theatre will each receive a beautiful pair of Holeproof silk hose, either chiffon or service weight from the company if they call at the Wendland store between 8:30 and 9:30 Thursday morning. Plans are under way to have all the young ladies escorted in a body from the Hotel Wendland to the Wendland store to take advantage of Mr. Wendland's generosity toward them. In addition to these gifts, the lucky girl who is chosen Miss Eastern Michigan will be presented with a half-dozen pairs of the same kind of hose by the Wendland store. Invitations to visit the store will be placed in each room of each girl.

The remainder of the queen's time is taken up with receptions, luncheons, dinners and dances. We congratulate Miss Gothro on winning this fine honor and we feel sure that Grayling will be well represented in Bay City. Watch for the full account next week, giving details of accounts of Grayling's float and the part it played at the carnival.

TOP O' MICHIGAN POTATO AND APPLE SHOW

The premiums to be offered at the Seventh Annual Top O' Michigan Potato and Apple Show at Grayling, October 30 to November 1, will be the greatest in the history of the Show, according to A. C. Lytle, Secretary. Last year the premiums and prizes totaled over $1,600. This year additional premiums and prizes will make the amount paid out to exhibitors and contestants nearly $1,800.

The principal change allows for a first, second and third prize of $5.00, $3.00 and $2.00 respectively for each county in the Association, provided there are three or more exhibits worthy of such a prize. In the past there has been only one prize of $5.00 for the best exhibit from any county. This change alone of the committee in charge is making the preparations to take care of the largest crowd that has ever witnessed a sporting event in that city. It will be the first time that a world's champion of any weight has shown his wares in Northern Michigan, and this fact in itself is bound to attract an enormous assemblage. Tickets for the Mandell-Frisco bout will be placed on sale Friday of this week at Henry's Book Store and Jess Herick's Recreation. Eight fans desiring reservations will do well to get in touch with either of these places at once to insure choice seats. In addition to the main bout, there will be a semi-final of eight rounds and three six round bouts between boys of experience, and the card as a whole will be an especially attractive one.

LIGHT-WEIGHTS TO FIGHT AT PETOSKEY

MANDELL AND FRISCO FIGHT 10 ROUNDS AUG. 28

Petoskey, Aug. 21—Northern Michigan fight fans will be given a real treat at Petoskey next Wednesday, August 28th, when the lightweight champion of the world, Sammy Mandell, and Frankie Frisco of Los Angeles, Calif., meet in a ten round bout in a famous decision at the Athletic Stadium on M-131.

The bout will be staged under the auspices of Petoskey order of Elks, No. 629, and Henry Boehm, chairman of the committee in charge, is making the preparations to take care of the largest crowd that has ever witnessed a sporting event in that city. It will be the first time that a world's champion of any weight has shown his wares in Northern Michigan, and this fact in itself is bound to attract an enormous assemblage. Tickets for the Mandell-Frisco bout will be placed on sale Friday of this week at Henry's Book Store and Jess Herick's Recreation. Eight fans desiring reservations will do well to get in touch with either of these places at once to insure choice seats. In addition to the main bout, there will be a semi-final of eight rounds and three six round bouts between boys of experience, and the card as a whole will be an especially attractive one.

Golf News

The Ladies Auxiliary met at the Club House Wednesday afternoon. There was a fine pot-luck luncheon at one o'clock and the twenty-two ladies who sat down proved their ability to appreciate it. In the afternoon two tables were filled for bridge, while the other ladies played golf. The score for golf was tied between Miss Thomas and Mrs. C. G. Clippert, Miss Thomas winning the draw. Mrs. Esbern Hanson held high score for bridge.

SEALED BIDS

Sealed bids will be received to 1 p. m. September 1st, 1929, for the transportation of school children from School District No. 3 to District No. 4 for the fiscal school year. The right to accept or reject any and all bids is reserved by the board. HENRY STEPHAN, Director School Dist. No. 3, Grayling, Mich.

It Won't Be Long Now

The House Committee have a wonderful improvement in the appearance of the club house with very attractive drapes and several new chairs and card tables.

WHY NO COUNTY 4-H CLUBS?

In reading our exchanges last week we noted with interest the pride of our neighboring towns in recording the doing of their boys and girls at the Fourth Annual Northern Michigan Four-H Club held at Gaylord. We were not there. None of our young hopefuls had an opportunity to compete in the very worthwhile projects carried on by this organization. And yet we have the material that makes the best citizens in the world in our community. It's our loss that we couldn't show these others what we are made of.

The following article clipped from the Alpena News shows that nearly every county in northern Michigan was represented at this encampment:

The closing of the fourth annual Northern Michigan Four-H club encampment at Gaylord was featured by announcement of winners in various contests. Cheboygan county made a fine showing in the events. Dorothy Scott of Wolverine won the Northern Michigan championship in canning demonstration, and Leila Coors of Alpena the same distinction in poultry judging.

One of the outstanding contests was for the most healthy boy and girl in Northern Michigan. Honors fell to Frank Sorenson, 15, of Alpena county, and Bessie Reichle, 18, of Alpena county. Frank weighs 141 pounds. He says he keeps regular hours, does not drink tea or coffee, and eats lots of fruits, vegetables and milk. He plays on his high school athletic teams.

Miss Reichle was chosen from 201 girls. She is 5 ft. 1 1/2 in. tall and weighs 141 pounds. She graduated from Hillman high school by doing the four year course in three years. She has lived on a farm all her life, and attributes her good health to farm life. The thrilling things of life to her are swimming, tramping, rowing, playing tennis, and horseback riding.

Results of the other contests follow: Group Singing Contest 1st, Charlevoix county. 2nd, Emmett county. Music Memory Contest 1st, Katherine Wagemann Charlevoix county. 2nd, Martha Reidel, Charlevoix county. 3rd, Naomi Couchon, Osego county. 4th, Mervile Alaire, Cheboygan county.

Clothing Demonstrations 1st, Osego county: Gertrude Cingell, Johannesburg; Fern Hagadorn, Burt. 2nd, Emmett county: Arda Joels, Goodhart; Irene Thompson, Goodhart. Canning Demonstration 1st, Cheboygan county: Dorothy Scott, Wolverine; Wilma Brudy, Wolverine. 2nd, Osego county: Martha Koscielniak, Gaylord; Regine Gruszynski, Gaylord.

Clothing Judging 1st, Emmett county: Irene Johnson, Goodhart; Margaret Brown, Harbor.

Style Show Winners

Lulu Bergeron, Prescott, Ogemaw county. Hazel Swanson, Gaylord, Osego county. Bessie Reichle, Hillman, Montmorency county (honorary.)

Canning Judges 1st, Charlevoix county: Doris Russell, East Jordan; Katherine Wagemann, East Jordan. 2nd, Arenac county: Audrey Marshall, Omer; Helen Jolley, Omer.

Crops Judging 1st, Paul Kaven, Twining, Arenac county. 2nd, Lewis Lake, Mancelona, Antrim county. 3rd, Ray Warner, Gaylord, Osego county.

Potato Demonstration 1st, Antrim county: Robert Hefflin, Alba; Carl Peterson, Alba. 2nd, Arenac county: William Tulloh, Omer; Gerald Wyatt, Omer.

Poultry Judging 1st, Leila Coors, Alpena, Cheboygan county; Robert Tripp, Alpena, Cheboygan county.

Poultry Demonstration 1st, Richard O'Reilly, Emmett county; Sidney Howard, Emmett county.

Handicraft Demonstration 1st, Ogemaw county: Sandy Parker, Lupton; Edward Killackey, Lupton. 2nd, Alpena county: Carl Siebert, Barton city; Lawrence Pizer, Harrisville.

Home Sick

Oh I have been real homesick for a land I've often seen, And I have longed for rural spots where I have often been; And it is true that each glad year, my longings deeper grow, To see the old Canadian farm where singing brooks flow. And why was I so fretting to see the quaint old place, And aching to be back there and sense a lovely face? And yet a voice is calling across the spaces far, And in the skies above me, I see her radiant star.

COMING

Dr. A. S. Allard, optometrist of 228 Shearer Bldg., Bay City, will be in Grayling at Shoppenagons Inn Wednesday, August 28 from 8:30 a. m. to 7 p. m. Now is the time to have the eyes examined to be ready for school. Nineteen years Examining eyes and making glasses that give results for folks of northern Michigan. Ask your neighbors, they are wearing glasses made by Dr. Allard. Calls made at residence when requested. Positively no glasses prescribed unless needed. Remember the date, Wednesday, August 28. DR. J. A. Holliday of St. Helen spent a few days last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ketzbeck and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Doroh.

Miss Kristine Sailing and Junior Mielstrup are spending a few days at Manitou Island the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bromwell.

Ernest Jorgenson came up from Birmingham and accompanied his wife and baby home, who had been spending the week visiting his mother.

Farrell Gorman and Floyd Loskos returned Sunday morning from Fort Brady, at the Soo, where they had been attending the Citizens Military Training camp for a month.

Miss Grace Hood was in Grayling today enroute to her home in Gladstone and while here called on friends and former pupils, having been a former physical director in Grayling schools.

Bertha Waite, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Waite is quite seriously ill at Mercy Hospital. The little girl underwent an operation Monday morning for the removal of a ruptured appendix.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Williamson, who had spent a couple of weeks in Grayling left for their home in Chicago Wednesday morning. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. T. Boeson, who will visit in Chicago for several days.

Willard Harwood had a narrow escape last Thursday afternoon when his auto was struck by the northbound flyer, train 202. Luckily the driver came out without a scratch, but his car was a wreck. This was the second accident at this crossing in a couple of days.

Alfred Hanson has taken the agency in Crawford county for the Chevrolet line of autos, and has cars on display ready for delivery at any time. He says it is always a pleasure to give demonstrations and invites the public to come in and look them over, or call the Hanson Service Station and a demonstrator will call for you.

In visiting the wreck a few minutes after the Michigan Central engine struck the Hendrickson car on August 14, we saw the switch engine alongside the wreckage and took it for granted that that was the engine that had the accident, but instead it was a freight train of 60 cars that had the accident. Wm. McNeven, conductor for the switch engine says that he has been in charge of the switching for 26 years and that during all that time he has never struck an auto or any other kind of vehicle. That is a fine record and we are glad to explain our mistake in justice to Mr. McNeven and the switching crew.

Wm. Peters of Monroe was in the Avalanche office Saturday and showed us a catch of rainbow trout that would make anyone happy. The basket there was one that measured 17 1/2 inches, one 16 inches and three of about 14 inches. He said he caught them in the Manistee river below Riverview. We suggested that he must be an expert but this he said was not so for he was only an amateur. These fish, he said, were caught while fishing from the river bank. He said he hooked a number of fish that he could not land. One was so large that it snapped a 20-pound test line. The Manistee has been a great stream to give up big ones and its reputation seems to be holding up well.

George Burke is in Detroit on business for the Burke garage.

Nice fat broilers, dressed or alive. Charles Corwin.

Alfred Hermann of Lansing spent the week and with his family here. Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Keyport and Miss Jane are spending a few days in Bay City.

Miss Maxine Collen is entertaining Miss LaBerta Orton of Detroit, who will be here for two weeks.

One of the big attractions at the Top O' Michigan fair this afternoon is the Grayling-Gaylord baseball game.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ketzbeck drove to Detroit Tuesday. They were accompanied by Mrs. E. H. Ketzbeck who has been sending some time in Grayling.

If a general exodus of Graylingites is noticed the last of the week it is no doubt largely due to the attractions at the Gaylord fair and the Water Carnival that is being held at Bay City. Both places have strong appeal for those who may enjoy a few days "out-of-town."

This is the week of the Top O' Michigan Potato Show at Gaylord. Since Grayling has no annual agricultural exhibit of any kind this fair has come to seem like our own and many of our people are in attendance. We are always glad for any project which can bring us closer to our neighbors and we wish the Gaylord fair success.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leonard of Gladwin announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth to Wendell L. Barnes on Saturday, August 10. The young couple will make their home in Guthrie Center, Iowa, where the groom is engaged as manager of a Swift and Co. plant. Mrs. Barnes was an instructor in Domestic Science here during the year of 1926.

A number of young people are being entertained at Murray Lodge this week. The guests include Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foss of Bay City and their house guest Miss Genevieve Blessie of Chicago. Dillon Foss of Bay City, Charles Warren of Scranton, Pennsylvania, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Collen, Jr. and George Hamilton Young of Bay City and Mrs. Sheldon Snyder and Charles Murchay of Detroit.

Capt. Roy Sindlinger of Lansing arrived with his wife and daughter, Arnoldine to spend the week at one of the military cottages at Lake Margrethe. Capt. Sindlinger is connected with the Quartermaster's department and says this is his vacation. During the Guard Camp he says he finds time only for real work and no time to enjoy the things this region so liberally affords. Tuesday afternoon, in company with Ye Editor they sought the elusive and the next morning there were trout enough for everybody in an abundance.

The Teacupians played for their last dance of the season at the Music Box last Saturday evening to a fair crowd. From here the boys will go to Gaylord to make music for the Top O' Michigan fair and then will return to Flint for the winter season. This orchestra has been furnishing with our music for a number of years and at all times we have found them a valuable asset to our community. They are a group of fine, clean young men whom we have all come to know and enjoy.

STATE FAIR OFFERS MANY ATTRACTIONS

Detroit, Mich., August 23—Trees that grow in a second and die in a minute—palm trees—studded with gems—will be part of the spectacular aerial fireworks display to be staged at the Michigan State Fair's eightieth annual exposition, September 1 to 7. It will be the first time this type of fireworks will be seen in this part of the country. They will be one of the main events of the nightly grandstand show to be made up of the Wild West rodeo, the type made famous at Pendleton, Ore., Cheyenne, Wyo., and Calgary, Alberta; 15 vaudeville acts, and a concert by Al Sweet's band in cowboy costume. The renowned 91st Highlanders "Kiltie" band of Canada will be heard each evening at the Horse Show in the Coliseum.

The palm trees seen in the display are "Jewelled Palms." Huge bombshells, exploding high in the air, release lines of green color which look like the fronds of palm trees. Along the fronds and at their tips are tiny brightly colored globes which give the trees a gem-studded appearance. "The Photographer's Nightmare" is another mystifying effect. A huge shell releases more than 5,000 tiny particles, brilliant and white, which flash intermittently, each like the bright illumination of a flashlight charge, and lighting up the firing ground and the entire surroundings.

Other unusual effects are "The Flight of the Glow Worms," made up of thousands of tiny globes that flash on and off in the air like fireflies; the "Screaming Geysers" producing showers of steaming silver color belched into the air with screaming sounds; the "All Star" brilliant fiery stars of many colors and sizes that chase each other about the sky and fall gracefully to the ground; and "Aerial Searchlights," duplicates of those used to light "No Man's Land" during the war. The most awe-inspiring is said to be the display, "The Union Screen," an immense battery of mammoth golden showers cascading in the air.

Unprofitable Thoughts

If you want to be miserable, think much about yourself; about what you like, what you want; what respect people ought to pay to you, and what people think of you.—Charles Kingsley.

ESCAPING FROM ONESELF

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

It was Joseph Conrad in his introduction to his "Tales of Unrest" who said, "We cannot escape from ourselves."

He was relating his experiences in writing a series of short stories. Having written one outlined another upon what he thought was an entirely different plan, with new phrasings new points of view, a different method of attack. "It was only later," he confesses, "that I perceived that in common with the rest of men nothing could deliver me from my fatal consistency. We cannot escape from ourselves."

Every day I see the truth of the statement in my own actions and in the reactions of those with whom I come into contact. We deceive ourselves that a new environment, a different job, a milder climate will inspire us with greater enthusiasm, will give us a keener desire for work, will help us to go on unpleasant tasks with increased eagerness. These things seldom have the effect we anticipate, for in truth, it is not the climate, nor the job, nor the environment that is wrong, but ourselves and we cannot escape from ourselves.

Gentry tells me that he is going to Wisconsin next year. His work at Illinois has been something of a failure. He doesn't like our weather, which, truth compels one to admit, is variable. Living conditions do not please him, his associates bore him, and his instructors are dull and altogether commonplace. The facts are that Gentry is lazy, he has been spotted at home, and so has grown self-centered. He will be disappointed wherever he goes, for he is not going to be able to get away from himself even in Wisconsin.

Dorner as a boy had always seemed to me a very disagreeable person, critical, pessimistic, caviling at the slightest opportunity for adverse criticism. Even when he was sitting off in a corner alone, he never seemed to me to be enjoying himself. His own company, even, was disagreeable to him. I had not seen him for some time until a few months ago when he seemed like a new creature, and I had the temerity to say so to him.

"I walked up to the fact one day," he explained to me, "that I was an impossible person to live with—ill-tempered, critical, ill-mannered, selfish. The fact at first did not make such a strong impression on me as it did later when I realized that all ways, whatever I did, wherever I went, early or late, night or day, should have to live with myself. There was no escaping it. I could get away from my family, I could snub the neighbors, I could ignore the people I met on the street, but my own personality followed me like a shadow inseparably a part of me. This thought frightened me. I decided to make myself the sort of person with whom it would be pleasant to am profitable to live."

That is the way to enjoy oneself (© 1929, Western Newspaper Union.)

This... answers the question... which is America's finest medium-priced automobile

The Oakland All-American Six was compared with twenty other cars in 878 individual comparisons. Of the 878 points of comparison, Oakland established clear-cut superiority on 451 or 51.37 per cent. The twenty cars combined proved at best to be equal to Oakland on 327 points or 37.20 per cent. Yet thirteen of these cars are higher-priced than the All-American Six... Let us give you complete returns of this analysis. Then you will know that here is America's finest medium-priced automobile.

What these features mean to you

Large piston displacement is needed to develop high power at moderate engine speed. Moderate engine speed is an important factor in the life of a car.

How Oakland compares with the field

Oakland's 228 cubic inch piston displacement is greater than 13 of the 20 cars in its price field. Of the 8 remaining cars, 7 are higher priced than Oakland.

FISHER BODY

Fisher bodies are famous for style, luxury and roominess. In addition, they hold such advantages as sturdy hardwood and steel construction, VV windshield, side cow ventilation and adjustable drivers' seats.

Only Oakland and two other cars in the field offer bodies by Fisher. And one of the two is nearly $100 higher in price than Oakland. Of the 18 cars which have less-known bodies, 11 are priced above the All-American Six.

Consider the delivered price as well as the list price when comparing automobile values. Oakland's delivered price includes only reasonable charges for handling and for financing when the C. M. A. C. Time Payment Plan is used.

Mrs. Dunn Owns Orioles

"Jacob's Ladder" The name "Jacob's Ladder" was given to the ladder reaching from earth to heaven seen in a vision by Jacob. This is also a name given to a short rope ladder on shipboard and to an apparatus for raising light weights to a considerable height. An endless revolving chain of buckets, filling themselves at the bottom of the chain and emptying themselves at the top, formerly much used in breweries and distilleries, is known as a "Jacob's Ladder."

ONE of the first duties of the state, village or community is to protect the individual's lives and property. This is done from various angles. There is the police, who enforce the laws which we make, there are institutions for the mentally unbalanced and those who are not self-sufficient and there are the health organizations, committees and officers who protect us from those afflicted with contagious disease as well as caring for those unfortunate.

There is reported to be in our midst a case of tuberculosis which has been diagnosed by the Tuberculosis clinic as active and a menace to others. This case is housed in a small home with a family with a child of three years. This individual is allowed the freedom of the streets and comes in contact with people many of whom are ignorant of his condition. The least we can say from an entirely selfish viewpoint is that our community can not afford to care for cases caused from careless exposure.

LEADING OAKLAND SALESMEN TO MEET

More than six hundred leading salesmen of the nation-wide Oakland-Pontiac retail organization will gather August 26 at twenty-five zone offices to be entertained by the Oakland Motor Car Company in recognition of the sales records which they have achieved during the year ending July 31.

The salesmen are members of the Oakland-Pontiac Fifty-Two Car Club for 1929. As the name of the club implies, membership is attained by the sale and delivery of 52 or more new automobiles during the twelve month period.

Competition for membership has been exceedingly keen among the 10,000 Oakland-Pontiac salesmen stationed throughout the United States, and a large number lacked qualification by a margin of only two or three sales. Many other qualified extremely wide margins.

The Humming Bird

The humming bird serves its name from the sound of its swiftly moving wings. It remains motionless all day, hovering like a flower as it floats about them. This bird, like the bee, is valuable in that it carries pollen from one plant to another. There are about five hundred species.

HANDLESS WOMAN

LOOPS HER PLANE

Stubs Serve as Arms, But She's Expert Pilot.

Los Angeles.—With stubs only six inches long to serve as arms, Miss Josephine Callaghan, twenty-two-year-old womanly rancher and sportswoman, recently graduated from the "stunt class" at Dyer airport where she piloted her plane alone through all the maneuvers required in the post graduate division.

Miss Callaghan bought a Lincoln Page biplane when she was allowed to solo after 50 hours of instruction from Charles E. Dyer, chief pilot for the Dyer School of Commercial Aeronautics.

Instead of the regulation short control sticks, Miss Callaghan had the plane equipped with a stick extending shoulder-length. At the top of the stick is a padded forked rod, and in his Miss Callaghan inserts one of her shortened arms.

Because of her height, Miss Callaghan also had the pilot's seat raised so that she can sit out and had the foot rudder bar moved up and back. Switches and throttle control also have been placed so that she can work them with her fingerless members.

Just before she zoomed her ship through a series of loops, wing overs and spins Dyer took her aloft for her last instructions.

"She tried two loops," Dyer said, "and slipped out of both of them. That often unnerves the average pilot. But Miss Callaghan just nosed the ship over for the third time, gave it the gun and made a perfect loop. She is better than many of the men students I have instructed, having a high degree of persistence, nerve and ability to follow instructions."

"Nothing like it," Miss Callaghan declared. "Why, I can pilot that plane easier than I can drive an automobile and took it the time I save. Also it's the greatest thrill in the world, and I ought to know, because I've been riding my humpers in horse shows for several years and driven all makes of automobiles."

Miss Callaghan keeps a stable of blue-ribbon winners on her estate at Encino and takes them East each season for competition in shows.

Woman's Two Weddings

Just Two Too Many

Oklahoma City, Okla.—A modern version of the tale of Enoch Arden, but without the climax of love and sacrifice, is being re-enacted in court here.

Ella Mae McMullen, who is divorcing one husband because "she married both men," seems likely to lose both men. Her other mate, husband No. 1, threatens to sue her also.

Now all she asks is that her twenty-year-old daughter be returned to her. Ella Mae married E. W. McGruder, twenty-eight years ago in Norman, Okla. After being happily married for three years she left him to visit her father. Returning she found her husband had gone to South America. This was in 1920.

He was later reported killed in an airplane crash there. The "widow" married Earl McMullen. Believing her first husband dead, she failed to divorce him.

Recently McGruder, now operating a filling station at the municipal airport here, appeared. Learning of his wife's second husband, he has threatened to sue her for divorce.

R. D. Connine and family are on a vacation at Traverse City.

Geo. W. Sackrider, of Houghton Lake was in town Saturday on business.

Mrs. Wm. McLeod is moving into the Victor Salling house on Peninsula Avenue.

O. Palmer appeared before the State Board of Equalization, Tuesday, in behalf of this county.

Karl Wilson and family have returned from their eastern trip and report a most enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. McBeckley of West Superior, Wis., are visiting their sister, Mrs. T. W. Hammond.

F. Narrin attended the picnic on the 16th, given by the Foresters Outing Association of Saginaw Valley.

Miss Myrtle Smith is home from her vacation and has resumed her desk in the office.

E. E. Hartwick and family are at "Grandpa" Michelson's. They will remain here and at the Lake during the heated term.

Mrs. R. M. Roblin entertained her sister, Mrs. Harry L. Randall, and their friend, Mrs. James Sweeney, of Bay City, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Joseph went East Tuesday morning to purchase an immense stock of fall goods, of which we will tell you later.

Fred Alexander has received another promotion. He goes from Lansing to the M. C. ticket office in Grand Rapids. Grayling boys get Mars.

Master Lorne Douglas is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sims, and Grandma Douglas, at Lovells this week. Master Arthur Niles went with him to go fishing.

A train was derailed last Friday near Johannesburg, by spreading rails. The crew and passengers were severely shaken up, but no severe injury or great damage.

W. Love has made a photograph of the 100 acre potato field on Underhill's ranch near Lovell. It is a fine picture and exhibits well the wonderfully growing crop.

Mrs. R. P. Forbes returned from her visit in the central part of the state last week. She is improving in health, but not yet nearly so well as she or her friends had hoped.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Masters, and Mrs. Bowman of Bryan, Ohio, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fournier and other friends this week. They went down the river Tuesday on a fishing excursion.

M. A. Bates is in Detroit attending a meeting of the National Association of Postmasters of the 2nd and 3rd class. The Michigan Association of Postmasters meets at the same time and place.

SCHOOL DAYS ARE COMING

Vacation has just properly begun, in the minds of school youngsters, and it is no time to be thinking of school books and lessons. Yet, with August already well spent, their parents already well spent, their grown-up parents are aware that summer vacation has only a few more days to run and that before long daughter and son will again be traveling the familiar pathways to school.

Thoughtful parents, planning the clothes and school supplies that will be required during the coming year, should consider the physical needs of their children. It is not enough to send a child to school well fed, well dressed and equipped with a set of books. A healthy body is also essential, for youthful minds cannot conceivably receive full benefit from school-room instruction when the body on any of its parts are incapacitated. Indeed, forced attendance at school in the presence of physical defects may result in life-long injury.

Usually, when a child falls behind in his classes he is termed a dullard, much as experience has shown that a bodily ailment, rather than mental inability, is often the actual difficulty. Impaired eyesight, to single out one common physical defect, may be at fault. Poor vision cannot always be discovered by depending upon the child to complain. A child with faulty eyes has no way of knowing that other boys and girls are different. Theodore Roosevelt was a sizeable lad before he discovered that objects easily seen by his schoolmates were only a blur to him. Every child of school age should have a very careful vision test. Any Michigan school that does not have a chart for testing vision may secure one free of charge by notifying the Michigan Tuberculosis Association, Lansing.

Poor hearing is another ailment that may be responsible for failure in school work. Hard hearing children, repeating failed work in the next class, are often placed at the back of the school room because they are big-ger than the younger children. The probability that they will fall again increases in ratio as they are moved away from the teacher's desk. Similarly, a number of other physical faults may be responsible for under-par school work.

A thorough examination by doctor and dentist will determine definitely if children are handicapped by defects, such as impaired vision, poor hearing, decayed teeth, diseased tonsils or adenoids, malnutrition, a cardiac disturbance, or faulty posture. Every school child, whether passing or failing in class work, should receive such an inspection.

Locusts
Different breeds (or generations) of locusts are known and circled by entomologists. They appear in different localities, as a rule, in different years, but nearly always there is a brood of adults emerging somewhere in the world, in any certain year.

FORBIDDEN THINGS

THINGS

Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

It was Jens Baggesen, a great Danish poet of the Nineteenth century, who tells of a friend of his—rich, strong, educated, able to do anything he desired—who was quite miserable and unhappy because his physician had denied him the use of coffee.

"If history is to be believed," Baggesen says, "Adam possessed all the advantages and comforts, all the necessities and luxuries—a first man

"As we do not know the nature of the fruit which Adam could not do without, it may as well have been coffee as any other. That it was pleasant to the eyes means no more than that it was forbidden. Every forbidden thing is pleasant to the eyes.

"Of what use is it all to me?" said Adam looking around him in Eden, at the rising sun, the blushing hills, the light green forest, the glorious waterfall, the laden fruit trees, and, most beautiful of all, the smiling woman—"it is all to me, when I have it, as it is all to me, when I have not it; that is the forbidden which I want."

It is the forbidden which I want, most, which seems most desirable. I have been reading a lot of old stories

IN combination with fresh vegetables, canned ones may often be used to good advantage. For instance, a judicious blending of canned corn with fresh squash, celery or tomatoes will result in a dish which is unusual and delicious. As the price of the reasonable price of the canned food will offset the higher cost of the fresh, and so will lower the total cost for the dish. Here are some recipes which show how canned corn can be combined with other foods.

New Corn Recipes

Summer Squash with Corn: Sauté one sliced onion in three tablespoons of drippings, add a pound of peeled and thinly-sliced summer squash and sauté a few minutes. Add one cup of canned corn, one cup of diced celery, one cup of fresh squash, and cook gently until tender. Add one cup of canned corn, one teaspoon salt and one-eighth teaspoon pepper and bring to boiling.

Mexican Corn: Sauté one chopped onion in two tablespoons butter until golden brown, add one tablespoon flour and stir smooth. Add two cups chopped, fresh tomatoes, two cups corn, one cup diced pimientos, one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon pepper and one-eighth teaspoon pepper. Pour into a buttered baking dish and cover thickly with crumbs and brown in a hot oven.

Indian Corn: Dice one green pepper and sauté in two tablespoons butter until a golden brown. Add link, sausages into slices, add pan and sauté until about half done. Add salt and pepper, contents of number 2 can of corn, one-half cup milk and two slightly beaten eggs. Mix well. Pour into buttered baking dish and bake about thirty minutes in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.).

could demand. . . . Among ten thousand pleasures the fruit of one are early molters as a rule, beginning to shed their feathers in July, August and September. Other characteristics which are sure indications of unprofitable egg production are thick, dry skin, thick breast bone, pelvic bones blunt and unyielding, and a hard abdomen, a dry and puckered vent, and a rear body depth (the distance between the pelvic bones) of less than three fingers. These poor-laying hens also have pelvic bones spread less than two fingers apart when measured just below the vent.

The good laying hens, the kind to keep, have quite different characteristics readily distinguishable. They are active and always seem to be busy. Their combs are bright red and their beaks and beaks faded and colored before October 1st. Their skin is soft and fine, their breast bone thin, and their pelvic bones are straight and flexible. Their good laying condition is further indicated by a soft, flexible abdomen and a moist and expanded vent. Their rear body depth measures four fingers or more and the width between the pelvic bones is at least three fingers.

ESSEX CHALLENGER MAKES NEW RECORD

Essex the Challenger established a new record last week when it accomplished the climb to the summit of Table Rock Mountain, being the first to accomplish the feat.

H. F. Lang, a Hudson-Essex dealer, was by the wheel and the test was supervised by newspaper men.

The trail-leading up the sun-baked sides of the steep incline is a mass of rocks and a tangle of sharp crevices and grades ranging from 28 to 35 degrees slopes.

Table Rock is famous in early American history as the place where Major Phil Kearney, with one hundred United States Dragoons, stormed the Rogue River Indians' stronghold on June 23, 1861.

"What is the use of coffee than?" it was the first question that Eve must have been reading a lot of folk stories

"Naughty, naughty," Smith says to his young son of tender years, who essays to touch his fingers to the hot stove. "Mustn't touch; burn baby," he warns. But forbidden things are alluring. Curiosity gets him into its grip. He walks about the fascinating mechanism with one eye on father and the other on the stove. Some day he is going to see what the consequences are if his fingers come into contact with the shining metal. He toddles off by himself shortly; there is a baby's shriek from the kitchen and he comes away with burned fingers, the penalty for meddling with forbidden things.

Mason, so far as I recall, had had no desire for liquor before the enactment of the prohibition law. He would have revolted against going into an open saloon, and if of an evening one of his respectable neighbours had offered him a drink from a hip flask he would have been shocked, if not insulted. Why should a man sit

The Higgins Lake forest nursery, covering twenty acres of intensively leveled ground, besides occupying an important place in the state's reforestation program has also been acclaimed by United States Forest Service authorities as one of the finest series of its kind in the world. In this nursery are grown the several millions of young white, red, and jack pine required yearly to meet the demand of reforestation projects scattered throughout state forests, parks, and game refuges.

The seeds for the nursery are obtained from cones that are artificially opened by heat. The seeds after extraction are carefully graded, cleaned and stored in a dry store room where a fairly constant temperature is assured. The seeds undergo considerable preparation before the seed is placed in them. The seedling is raised by means of drills, the subsequent even spacing later saves much trouble in weeding and cultivat-

COUNTRY PAPER GAINS

The notion that the country will be replaced or damaged by growth of the radio, the movie, any other modern agency for entertainment and distribution of information was scoffed at by Congress Aswell of Louisiana, in an address recently.

The country newspaper, he claims, is an essential part of its community, as essential as the house, the school, or the church. The editor, he maintains, is closer to the lives of his citizens than even the minister or the family doctor.

Great or small, finds its place in his knowledge or attention.

He cited the views of Thomas Jefferson who said he would rather have newspapers without a government than a government without newspapers. The great student of democracy believed that newspapers are essential to successful popular government—that the fear of publicity is a greater deterrent of corrupt practices than prison threats, and that a pure knowledge of what is going on in the community is essential to the functioning of the nation.

The heavy demand for the seed-County News.

It is different now; the thing is far bidden, and so Mason has his favorite bootlegger. He stocks up with all sorts of inebriating concoctions. One cannot drop into his house for the briefest call without his bringing out glasses and a bottle, and not because he really likes liquor, but just because it is forbidden. He is a child too not to touch the burning stone.

DIPPING INTO SCIENCE

Dynamite and Oil

A successful method of locating oil is through the use of dynamite. The salt dome, in most cases far beneath the ground's surface, is usually but not always an indication of oil. To detect the domes, dynamite is exploded and the vibrations recorded by the seismograph. Vibrations pass through ordinary soil about one-third as slowly as when they pass through a salt dome, and the seismograph indicates the difference.

comes during the spring and when they are two or three years old.

The seedlings are lifted by a shovel like implement and are taken to the packing house, where a machine developed several years ago to facilitate the speed of packing the trees for shipment to the planting areas is found. Once the trees are removed from the ground, it is desirable to have them replanted as soon as possible. Protected on the outside by damp sphagnum moss, the checker binds them compactly together in wire netting, after which they are put in steel baskets and shipped to their destination by trucks. The entire process of lifting, packing, shipping, up to the time of seedling are permanently set out, seldom takes more than two or three days.

The nursery runs on the assumption that the young trees have more conditions duplicate to a reasonable degree natural conditions. For that reason the seedling beds are not sheltered, shaded to any extent, or catered more than necessary. The result is an unusually hardy young tree, possessing a maximum chance of pulling through bad weather, poor soil, in fact, almost anything but the best fire.

The nursery is one of the beauty

Supervisor Barnett and Albert Lewis were in Lansing last week to appear before the State Board of Equalization. Mr. Barnett says the State Board had increased Crawford county's valuation from $3,234,000 to $3,300,000—an increase of $66,000. Mr. Barnett appeared before the board and was able to convince the members that our valuations had not increased. The State board compromised by cutting their figures down. That was fine work on the part of Supervisor Barnett, the result of which will no doubt be gratifying to the taxpayers of this county.

Mrs. Bertha Eastman-Smith and daughter Miss LaVern of Detroit are enjoying a pleasure trip in the west, according to cards received by their friends.

Grayling friends, having been former residents here. They expect to visit the states of Washington, Oregon and California, the trip being the national convention of Miss LaVern's Sorority. She will return to Detroit September 1st where she is a teacher in the public schools of that city while Mrs. Smith will remain until November 1st, visiting old Grayling residents who reside in Seattle and Everett, Wash., Pasadena, Calif., and other cities.

Chan Gregory of Bay City spent a few days last week at the Stephan resort on the AuSable. For fifty years Mr. Gregory has been coming to this region annually for trout fishing and oftentimes several visits are made during the season. He loves the AuSable and the great northern outdoors. Mr. Gregory is an honest-to-goodness sportsman of the cleanest type and plays the game for its pleasure, the fine associations it affords and for its energizing health giving. With him "the fun of the hunt" is in the run—not the kill. We hope that he may continue his visits here for many years to come.

Mrs. George Sorenson delightfully entertained twenty young ladies and gentlemen at their cottage at Lake Margrethe Tuesday evening in honor of her daughter Miss Loretta. It was the young lady's sixteenth birthday and the affair was a complete surprise to her. The guests enjoyed swimming and boat riding and after a large bonfire was built on the beach and they roasted weenies and marshmallows to their heart's content. Before leaving for their homes the jolly crowd was treated to ice cream and delicious cakes. It was a very pleasant affair and was enjoyed very much by the young folks.

VERY NEWEST DESIGNS REPRESENTED ON OUR FLOORS

The purchase of better quality furniture is really the finest kind of ECONOMY to practice.

In purchasing furniture you should always keep in mind the fact that you are going to live with your furniture a long time. It isn't like an article of wearing apparel that you wear only for a short time and then discard. Furniture that is hastily selected and bought simply because the price is low, very often develops into an eyesore after living with it a short time.

The type of furniture that you will see on display on our floor was selected because it was designed for service, for beauty, for character and all of the qualities that homekeepers, who appreciate the better things, would like their furniture to possess.

SIRE TRAIN TO VISIT GRAYLING SEPT. 26

Little sympathy will be shown for the scrub bull when the Dairy Sire Train makes its run thru Northwest Michigan over the Michigan Central Railroad and Detroit and Mackinac Railway that two weeks, beginning than one-fourth of the dairymen are using a pure bred bull. In other words, about three-fourths of the dairy farmers have a scrub or grade bull at the head of their herds. With this condition existing it will be a long time before the farmers of Northeastern Michigan can prevent the importation of 60,000 pounds of butter fat into Michigan yearly with a value totaling thirty millions of dollars.

When the Dairy Sire Train passes

BEST ROUTE FOR ENTERING STATE FAIR

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 21—Michigan State Fair officials are recommending what they consider the most desirable route to the fair grounds so that upstate visitors to the fair, September 1 to 7, may follow the most convenient roads, enter by the most accessible gate and be certain of finding parking space and of seeing the exposition.

The officials' concern is prompted

GENUINE SYMPATHY

September 23.

History records two great periods in American history: the passing of the Indian and the passing of the buffalo. When this Dairy Sire Train, with its preliminary activities and follow-up work, is completed, history will have to add another great chapter to its book, namely, the passing of the scrub sire.

It is common knowledge that the fastest road to a profitable dairy herd is thru a pure bred sire of known ancestry and high production. A dairymen does not need to spend a large amount of money buying a pure bred herd. If he will select a good pure bred bull and use it in his herd of good grade cows and eliminate the low producers thru Dairy Herd Improvement Association records, he will soon be on the road to profitable dairy production.

Only a very few of the hundreds of thousands of dairy farmers have pure bred dairy herds, according to E. N. Hansen, Bull Specialist, Michigan State College, but it is hard for many of us to believe that less thru this territory next September, by the conditions of last year, especially on Labor Day, when 12,000 visitors will have an opportunity to trade this scrub for a pure bred of high production records. No animal whose dam produced less than 400 pounds of butter fat per year will be taken along on this Train and all there will be many with records higher than this. Plan now to take part in all the preliminary activities and visit the Train when it traverses this territory.

The train will be in Grayling from 9:30 to 12:30 and in Grayling from 1:30 to 5:00 on Sept. 23.

NOTICE

On July 22nd my wife applied for divorce, therefore I refuse to pay for any credit extended her by anyone.

A. J. VALLAD.

Supplementing their route suggestions, fair officials have provided parking facilities for an additional 5,000 by grading 15 acres just south of the race track, increasing parking space 50%.

Fair visitors from the Saginaw-Flint section and using Route U.S.-10 are advised to turn east on the Eight-Mile road and enter at the Eight-Mile road gate.

Up and over the top in high! Her car seems hungry for hills—swallows them, softly purring.

Away it speeds on the open road. Swiftly and smoothly the miles fly past. [Red Crown Ethyl gives it power and speed].

Back to the city and the traffic jam. Cars stand panting to be off. Horns blow. Some engines knock and sputter impatiently. Her sleek car in the midst of the jam waits with a well-behaved purr.

The engine is quiet. It whirs with a steady rhythm—with the easy unconcern of power. [Red Crown Ethyl knocks out knocks—keeps it purring in that well-behaved way].

The light says go! Watch her car shoot ahead! It could afford to be unconcerned. It has power to spare because it is fueled with Red Crown Ethyl and is therefore untroubled by the trying conditions that make other cars complain!

CONGRESSMAN WOODRUFF WINS BELATED VICTORY

Washington, D. C., August 16, 1929.

A spectacular if belated victory was secured by Representative Roy O. Woodruff of Bay City, Michigan recently when the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia rendered the largest verdict in its history against John-L. Phillips and others concerned in a contract for disposal of the government's surplus lumber after the World War. The Court ordered Phillips, who is a former Republican National Committeeman from Georgia to pay back to the Federal Treasury $1,381,000 and his various associates nearly $1,600,000 more.

Early in 1922 Mr. Woodruff began an attack upon the administration of Harry M. Daugherty, Attorney General under President Warren G. Harding, for failure to proceed against persons guilty of war frauds, and Mr. Phillips was among the principal contractors to which he referred. In four successive speeches, April 11, May 9 and 16 and June 9, 1922, the Bay City Congressman hammered away at the Department of Justice and on each of these occasions he reiterated his charges against Phillips. He asserted specifically that the latter owed the Government $1,800,000.

The immediate result of the Woodruff speeches was the arrest of Phillips and his associates for fraud against the Government. These criminal cases were tried during the Daugherty regime and the defendants acquitted, but under the administration of Harlan S. Stone as Attorney General, civil suits were instituted with the result of producing this record-breaking cash verdict, which is the largest ever awarded the Government in the District of Columbia.

"Konjola Came As a Blessing Into My Life"

Suffered from Nervous Fits—All Run-down—New Medicine Scored—Fine Victory

MRS. ANNA BUCK

"I was sick, worn-out and rundown all over," said Mrs. Anna Buck, 63 West Forest street, Detroit, Mich. "I was intensely nervous, had frequent dizzy spells, sharp pains across the back, had to get up time after time every night, and my digestion was just about everything it should not be. My system was filled with poison."

"Konjola came as a blessing into my life. Six bottles in six weeks made a new person of me. I can eat and digest any food; gone are the terrible neuritis and the kidney pains across my back. I do not have to get up any more at night, and my general health has improved so that I feel as though I never had a sick day in my life. Konjola is simply marvelous."

Konjola is sold in Grayling at the Mac & Gidley drug store and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.
